CONKLING AND COIN ARRIVING ON MONGOLIA

Territorial Treasurer David Lloyd Conkling, now in San Francisco, will leave for Honolulu on the Mongolia, arriving here September 20. This information was received yesterday by Governor Frear. The exact method by which the money received on the first sale of bonds in New York will be transferred from the Coast to this port had not been definitely determined by the treasurer at the time he wrote the letter to the Governor.
Although the first delivery of bonds was to be $500,000, Conkling is not bringing that amount home with him.
By an agreement with the attorneys and fiscal agents of the purchasers, he delivered only 480 bonds, withholding twenty bonds as surety for the carrying out of the balance of the contract. Out of this first payment he also deducted about $40,000, which he left in New York as payment of accruing interest on other bonds and taking up bonds that expire this month.
On the second delivery of the new bonds, $400,000, he will turn over to the purchasers 410 of the 1000 bonds, holding back ten bonds as surety for the final fulfillment of the contract, and on the last delivery he will turn over 460 bonds.

The only people who keep all their promises are those who never make any.

Small Carrie was visiting in the turn to the house, "there's a lot of flies over by the barn with striped blazers on."
